1. Pursuant to DepEd Memorandum No. 8 s. 2014, SDO Nueva Ecija announces the conduct of Division Home-based Fun-day and Learning Camp (FLC) in celebration of National Intellectual Disability Week with the theme: “Leadership and Participation of Persons with Disabilities toward an Inclusive, Accessible and Sustainable Post-COVID-19 World” on February 14-20, 2022. This home-based FLC will be organized by the schools offering SPED Programs in Schools Division Office of Nueva Ecija through the joint efforts of School Heads and SPED Teachers for both public and private.
2. This activity aims to:
  - a. provide learners with intellectual disabilities fun and enjoyable activities alternative to online and modular instruction in this crisis situation;
  - b. enhance the talents and skills of learners and lessen their anxieties and boredom during pandemic; and
  - c. encourage parents and other stakeholders on the inclusion of children with intellectual disabilities in the school and community.
3. The suggested school activities for these event include: sports, cooking, and art activities, advocacy campaigns, open dialogues with parents, service providers, and stakeholders. Discussing the best teaching practices to improve inclusion of children with intellectual disabilities in the school and the community is also strongly encouraged.
4. Immediate and wide dissemination of the content of this Memorandum is highly enjoined.
